

Question for the MIDAC:

Based upon the presented literature review, do you think O-15 Water injection is safe and effective in positron emission tomography (PET) imaging to measure cerebral blood flow in patients with cerebral vascular disorders associated with ischemia, hemodynamic abnormalities, occlusion, and other vascular abnormalities?